

11-05-07

Announcements

- Next general meeting Dec. 3 – Walt Koenig, ecologist, “Conservation Ecology of California Oaks”, UC Berkeley, Dept. of Intg. Bio
- Next BACBS planning meeting, Tue, Nov 13, 5:10pm
- Free CFLs – 2/person, PG&E donated 500,000 bulbs to Sierra Club for distribution
- Membership – There has been a change in membership procedure,
 - Chapter members now get free membership to the parent organization,
 - Chapter membership is $5
 - If you have already paid $10 to parent org, you may ask for a $5 refund from the our chapter
- Noa Pinter-Wollman – discussed panel topics & seminar for BACBS; SCB/EVE conservation biology seminar series, all new talks/speakers
 - BACBS After-lunch panel – Proposed topic will be “bridging the gap between scientists & managers”, panel speaker ideas wanted, particularly those in the management field

Guest speakers – Riparian/Oak restoration

- Andrew Fulks (Putah Creek Riparian Reserve Manager)
- Jim Thorne – First planting this Fall: Sun, Nov. 18th, 10am-4pm, will send out email;
 - Can also help pot acorns at Environmental Horticulture

12-03-07

Announcements

- BACBS website up & running
- WIDSI – Email Sara Krause, skkrause@ucdavis.edu, if you are interested in participating

Guest Speaker

Walt Koenig, UC Berkeley – CA Oak Ecology